

Wallpaper*

Los Angeles exhibitions: an ongoing guide to the best shows in town

Read our ongoing picks of the best new and upcoming Los Angeles art exhibitions to see under the California sun

By Harriet Lloyd-Smith, Sophie Gladstone – September 15, 2022

Los Angeles exhibitions: upcoming

‘Solaire Culture’, by Veuve Clicquot
468 North Rodeo Drive building, Los Angeles
26 October - 16 November 2022

‘Solaire Culture’ will make its US debut featuring commissioned work by leading contemporary female artists that have responded to the heritage of Veuve Clicquot and the free-spirited sensibilities of Madame Clicquot, accompanied by a selection of archival objects from Veuve Clicquot’s collection. For the show, which forms part of the Veuve Clicquot’s 250th anniversary celebrations, French curator Camille Morineau united ten trailblazing female artists for the first time: Yayoi Kusama, Sheila Hicks, Tacita Dean, Inès Longevial, Cece Philips, Rosie McGuinness, Olimpia Zagnoli, Pénélope Bagieu, Moyoco Anno and Monique Frydman, with scenography by Constance Guisset.