July 29, 2021

In this weekly series, Artsy’s Curatorial and Editorial teams offer a look at the artworks that are currently gaining traction among collectors on Artsy. Looking at our internal data, we share a selection of works that Artsy members are engaging with through inquiries, page views, and saves, plus promising lots in current auctions. The following pieces are culled from recent online auctions and art fairs hosted on Artsy, as well as exhibitions and works added by our gallery partners.

Ziping Wang, The Forgotten Tapestry (2021)

Part of Ziping Wang’s current solo exhibition, “The Other Landscape,” at the gallery Unit London, this alluring painting continues to receive a steady stream of inquiries. Drawn to the visually appealing colors and design of food wrappers, Wang combines these images with traditional Chinese motifs, fragments of wallpaper-like cutouts, and cartoonish renderings of snacks to produce fragmented collages that create a captivating illusion of flatness.
