EXBERLINER

Berlin art: What exhibitions are on now?

What's going on in the art world and which Berlin exhibitions should you check out this week?

Shota Nakamura

Shota Nakamura paints people in bed. People at the lake. People in bed at the lake. His painting comes across as naive in its figurativeness and flatness, but this does not detract from its impact. Consisting primarily of oil paintings, the works weave a harmony between the creation of images and the imagination of worlds. Reflecting on the pictorial research that is so important to his practice, Shota's paintings digest the turmoil of our present. His response is a quiet stillness that frees the viewer from the incessant barrage of images and media.
