

PERES PROJECTS

VOGUE
GERMANY

Gallery Weekend Berlin 2023: Don't miss these art highlights this weekend

From April 28 to 30, Gallery Weekend takes place in Berlin. On today and tomorrow: discover textile art, modern cave paintings and critical perspectives – our guide to what not to miss in the capital this weekend.

Maria Hunstig and Lea Brandstetter
26. April 2023

Peres Projects: Dylan Solomon Kraus

The American artist Dylan Solomon Kraus presents his first solo exhibition in Berlin at Gallery Weekend. “ExHypnosis” describes - in contrast to the passive state of hypnosis - a clear waking state. Kraus uses motifs and myths from the real world to challenge the way we perceive our environment. In doing so, his works are characterised by an impressive depth: “I like when my paintings have many layers under them because they are paintings not pictures, they are meant to carry everything that went into them not just be read on the surface.,” the artist revealed to Art of Choice.

“ExHypnosis” by Dylan Solomon Kraus, from 28. April to 16. June, Peres Projects, Karl-Marx-Allee 82, 10243 Berlin, Germany