

THE TOP 7 PAINTING EXHIBITIONS TO SEE IN LONDON THIS SUMMER

By Tabish Khan • 24 July 2022

Tabish Khan the @LondonArtCritic picks his favourite painting exhibitions to see in London. Each one comes with a concise review to help you decide whether it's for you. Those looking for more exhibitions should check out his art installation exhibitions, where all but one remain open.

Sholto Blissett: Ship of Fools @ Hannah Barry Gallery

These stunning landscapes feature abandoned architecture as if humans have just left and nature rapidly returns to destroy it as buildings teeter over waterfalls and on unstable ground, mixing an environmental message with the rich history of Romantic landscape painting. Until 13 August.